

Terms of Use Policy – Pixelush/Pixelush Studios

Last update: September 15, 2025

Thank you for purchasing from Pixelush/Pixelush Studios. This policy outlines how you may use our digital designs.

By downloading and using these digital files, you agree to the following terms:

What You Can Do:

You can incorporate my designs into physical products as often as you'd like, whether you choose to modify them or not. Attribution isn't necessary, but a mention of Pixelush Studios is always appreciated.

What You Cannot Do:

Do not resell, share, or distribute the original digital files in any format.

Do not upload my designs to free download sites, social media groups, or any site where they can be retrieved by others, or offer them as freebies.

Do not claim my artwork as your own unless it has been significantly transformed.

Do not use my designs to create fonts, alphabets, or similar derivative tools.

Print-On-Demand (POD) Policies:

Allowed: You're welcome to use third-party production services to create and ship physical products sold through your own storefront. This type of fulfillment is allowed, as long as you manage your listings and customer interactions directly.

Not Allowed: Uploading unaltered designs to third-party print-on-demand marketplaces where products are sold and commissions are earned is not allowed under this license.

If you have any questions about how this license applies to your intended use, you're welcome to contact me directly through Etsy messages or by email at pixelush@outlook.com. I'm always happy to help.

Thank you so much for your purchase and for supporting Pixelush Studios — I wish you endless inspiration and success in your creative journey!
